Philip Guston Philip Guston 2011 "This volume introduces the diverse voices that comprise Guston's linguistic tapestry. Guston never stopped talking for too long. There may have been periods of silence precipitated by existential moments of doubt, but such lapses seem anomalous when measured against the voluminous transcriptions gleaned and edited by Clark Coolidge. Coolidge has done an admirable job arranging and presenting the book's contents, entirely relevant to anyone curious about Guston, and by extension, American Art of the post-World War II period."—Douglas Dreishpoon, chief curator at Knox-Albright Gallery

Seven Going on Seventeen Jacqueline Reid-Walsh 2005 The tween is the «new girl on the block» in girlhood studies. Although the study of tween life may have derived from a particular marketing orientation at the end of the twentieth century, it is not limited by it. On the contrary, this collection of essays shows that «tween» is not a simple or unified concept, nor is it limited to a certain class of girls in a few countries. This collection by an international group of authors highlights specific methodologies for working with (and studying) tween-age girls, provides challenges to the presumed innocence of girlhood, and engages in an analysis of marketing in relation to girlhood. In so doing, this book offers a reading on these three or four years in a girl's life that suggests that this period is as fascinating as the teen years, and as generative in its implications for girlhood studies as studies of both younger and adolescent girls.

Perspective Drawing Robert Philip Gordon 2008-02-08 This book balances the need for detail with the need for spontaneity by establishing a connection between constructed perspective and freehand sketching. The techniques illustrated and discussed in this text enable students to design a space as they are drawing it. After studying the methods for constructing linear perspective, students produce a number of freehand sketches. They test each one with an overlay grid to verify the location of horizon lines, vanishing points, and other key elements. With practice, they develop the ability to find these key points intuitively while sketching, so that they can draw freely and confidently.

Polnische Kulturplakate im Sozialismus Karolina Kempa 2017-11-23 Die polnische Plakatschule des 20. Jh. genießt internationales Ansehen und polnische Plakate sind selbstverständlicher Bestandteil renommierter Kunstinstitutionen, wie etwa dem MoMa in New York. Die Untersuchung fokussiert erstmalig die Bedeutungsdimensionen polnischer Kulturplakate anhand der Werke von zwei berühmten Vertretern, Jan Lenica und Franciszek Starowieyski. Sowohl die künstlerischen Eigentümlichkeiten als auch die gesellschaftlichen Bedingungen und Bedeutungen ihres Schaffens in der Volksrepublik Polen werden analysiert. Hierfür wurde eine interdisziplinäre Herangehensweise an Plakate konzipiert, die diese nicht bloß als Werbeträger versteht, sondern qualitative Aussagen zu Ästhetik, Wirkmächtigkeit und gesellschaftlicher Relevanz erlaubt.

Women of the Underground: Art Zora von Burden 2012-11-20 "It is not about provocation, reaction or even invocation, it is about transformation: mentally and physically."—Marina Abramovic, artist "Art is subjective, and if one sees something in an image, that projection is a reflection of the spectator, who sees what he or she wants to see, whose critique is relevant to him or herself, exposing his or her own perversions."—Irina Ionesco, artist Until the late twentieth century, women's creative skills were relegated to craft and decorative arts, and valued only for utilitarian purposes in service to others and the manufacturing of products to benefit society. After enduring the great injustice of being denied the freedom that self-expression brings through art for the joy of the human spirit, Women of the Underground: Art celebrates those female cultural innovators who are creating new artwork that pushes boundaries, dares to question, and redefines the genres of mixed media; theater; film; photography; and visual, conceptual, and performance art. In this groundbreaking anthology that will inspire artists and everyone interested in alternatives to mainstream culture, as well as serve as a reference book for art historians, twenty-six female artists describe their ideas, beginnings, influences, and creative techniques. Contains interviews with Lady Pink, Marina Abramovic, Orlan, Aleksandra Mir, Penny Arcade, Johanna Went, the Guerrilla Girls, and many others. Editor Zora von Burden was born and raised in San Francisco, California. A frequent contributor to The San Francisco Herald, von Burden also wrote the screenplay for Geoff Corder's underground cult classic film, Hotel Hopscotch.
